PULASKI, TENN, FRIDAY MORNING, FEB'RY, 9, 1866.

A pretty girl and a wild horse are liable to do much mischief, for the one runs away with a fellow's body, and the other with his heart.

THE most difficult operation in the practice of surgery is said to be "taking the jaw out of a woman." The fellow who said that must be an old buchelor, of the large blue sort.

A negro woman who was baptized a few Sundays ago at Huntsville, Ala., came forth from the water shouting, "Freed from slavery-freed from sin! Bress God and Gen. Grant 1

A learned young lady astonished a company by asking for the loan of "a diminutive, argenteous, truncated cone, convex on its summit, and semiperforated with symmetrical indentations." She wanted a thimble.

WE learn that a rich old bachelor in a neighboring city married a beautiful young lady recently; and that before the ceremony took place, he "drew up the legal documents donating his intented $400,000 in cash and property," as an offsett for us old age and other sins,

A certain elder preached a sermon some time since, when he made the following comparison in "dissecting" the miser: "The soul of the miser is so shriveled that it would have more room to play in a grain of mustard seed than a bull-frog in Lake Michigan.

DESCENDANT OF SHARSPEARE. - William itt detected a lineal descendant of 's sister, among a village school Shakspearan countenance. His name Smith, but the boys speare for short.

An exchange truly says that "you may insert a thousand excellent things in a newspaper, and never hear a word of approbation from its readers; but just let a line or two not suited to their taste slip in, (though by accident,) and you will be sure to hear of it."

An old negro weman in the Richmond, Va., market last week, was interrupted in the sale of some articles she exposed contrary to the market ordinance, when, highly indignatly stowing away her stock, she said: "Wish Mass Lineum had done kep his freedom. Its jest like Confederik money, more you get on it the less 'cout it is."

Ir is sumored that the Government is about to temporarily revoke the proclamation issued some months ago wherein emigrants were allowed to proceed to Mexico and carry arms for individual protection. In so far as the Gulf Department is conserned, revocation has already taken place. and it will be made to apply to the Northern and Pacific ports, should it be found necessary.

Manufacturing at the South.

Many of the Southern States are embarking in manufacturing enterprises which promise speedily to develops and put into full operation the unrivalled resources that they enjoy. The causes which have hitherto retarded the Gulf States in manufacturing their own principal staple-cottonhave been removed; factories are everywhere springing up, machinery being prowided and skilled opperatives imported. Every Southern State is furnished with water power in abundance; the only thing necessary to complete success is capital, and that is exhibiting its willingness to migrate thither; so that under the new system of free labor the manufacturers of New England may soon encounter formidable rivals in the South .- Ex.

The Citizen will positively be issued on Friday, the 5th inst., and regularly each week thereafter. We invite our friends to call and get specimen copies. It is the official paper of Giles county-containing each week, besides the commercial and market reports, Congressional, Legislative and miscellaneous news from all parts of the country-a concise and reliable report of all local, County and State news, together with the proceedings of Courts and public meetings held in the county-

zen, we deem it useless to inflict upon the people of Giles county, who know us so well, a lengthy and unnecessary address, detailing its political status. You are all familiar with its career before the war. and are well accuainted with our ideas of government and political economy, as anuounced from week to week before the war. The Oilizen will be the same paper that it was then, so far as it can be Consistent with the new order of things. Of course it will recognize the death of slavery, and accord to the late slaves all the rights and immunities which their new situation entitles them to. Believing it to the interest of the white race as well as the black for friendly relations to exist between the two, we would exhort the former to be generous and liberal, and the latter to be patient, moral, industrious and provident-to raise themselves by industry and edutation to a higher standard morally, socially and intellectually. Let the white men of the South grove themselves the truest, best friend the negro has, and then let the negro prove himself true to the wlite man. We would raise the negro to a social level with the white man. We believe social equality a humbug and an impossibility. Nor A would we take from them the means of education and reform. Let them be educated if they can be, and they at once know their true relation to the other race. We will oppose negro suffrage, but under all the circumstances as they exist in Tennessee, we believe it best that Inde admitted to the civil Courts to see and be sued, plead and he impleaded. We of course will not become the organ of any party, sect or individual, but will take high, independent ground-advocating that which seems to us best for our country, lashing parties and partizans whenever they come in the way. We were not a partium before the war, and our friends may rest assured we are much less a partizan now. Our object will be to print a paper well filled with literature, market and financial reports, interesting miscellany and news from all parts of the worldeschewing party and doing everything we can for the interest of our town, county, State and country. So far as President Johnson's administration has developed his policy toward the secoded States and towards the late rebels, we will give him our cordial approval. If he pursues to the end the course indicated by his recent acts and sayings, as we understand them, his administration will have been just, generous and statesmanlike, and the people of America will accord to him the honor of bringing order out of chaos, restoring civil and religeous liberty to the country, crushing out the germs of anarchy and confusion which had well nigh ruined us, and of restoring the government to its original purity. In contradistinction to the radical party who seek to rule his administration for base party purposes, the President has shown himself wise and good.

We commence the Citizen with a very small subscription list, and trust to the future for an increase of patronage. We request every friend of the enterprise to aid us in getting up a large list at once .-We hope no one will consider his services unnecessary, but let every true friend take a prospectus, show it to the country people and the town people, and let every man subscribe. - Receive no name without the money.

Opinions of Distinguished Business Men.

"Advertise your business. Do not hide your light under a bushel. Whatever your calling or occupation may be, if it needs support from the public, advertise it thoroughly and efficiently in some shape or other, that will arrest public attertion. I freely confiss that what success I have had in life may fairly be attributed more to the public press than to nearly all the other causes combined. There may possibly be occupations that do not require advertising, but I cannot well conceive what they are .- P. T. BABNEM.

"I have always considered advertising-liberally and long-to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have always made it an invariable rule, too, to advertise in the dullest times, a long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out; as by keeping my business continually before the public has secured me many sales that I otherwise would have lost."-STEPHEN GIRARD.

"Whatever success I may have had in business I owe mainly to continuous advertising, and I deem it good policy to advertise long in the same papers. From a close observation I am fully convinced that it is impossible to make much headway in any kind of business, without the facilities which the press alone can give.—Jacon Ridgeway,

"My motto through life has been, work and advertise. In busines, advertising is the true philosopher's stone, that turns whatever it touches to gold. I have advertised much, both in the weekly as well as the daily papers; nor have I found that those of the largest circulation, of either class, benefitted me the most .- John Jacon Aston

"Advertise! advertise! This is the life of trade; and standing advertisements, you will find, will prove the most remunerative, at least I have found it so during my business career thus far; for should you withdraw but a single week from the paper in which you are accustomed to advertise, ten to one that would be the time when some would be new customers will look into the paper for your business address, and not finding it, you will lose several profitable sales .- WILLIAM GRAY.
